Daddy, You are a great father. Sometimes death does not fore warn us when it is coming. This is one of them. I am so grateful to God that you are my father and that your exemplary life lives on. Like you always say, to "God be the glory". Thank you God, for his live well spent and 11yrs you give us with him when we thought he could not make it. I am grateful Lord, and i am sooooo thankful God that He is with you. Good night daddy.

Always your princess

It has not been easy to come to terms with the shocking news, broken to me by Dee Udo, of the answer to home call of Hon. Sir, Abel Okoroafo, father to Dr. Mrs. Oluchi Wogu, nee Okoroafo.

Hon. Abel Okoroafo was a great man. He reproduced children who are great and grand children whose greatness are unfolding.

I shared fond moments with this great minister of God and servant to the people that would remain indelible.

I pray the God of mercies to grant Dr. Mrs Oluchi Wogu, together with all the members of the immediate and the extended family, the fortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss.
