“ As her great niece, one of my biggest blessings was connecting with her a couple of years ago! Aunt Ann and I had a few conversations over the last three or four years and she was still very sharp! She talked about her Georgia family as if she had never left and remembered events from every visit she made. She told me stories of my mom and me and even fussed at me for forgetting to send her the Christmas picture of my family like I had did the year before 😂 The last time we spoke I asked her to remind me of her age. She said, “Baby, auntie was 100 years old on December 15th and I’m still in my right mind!” I said to her, “ I pray that God has put into me what He’s given you!” Such a life well lived! My only regret is that I never made it to see you on this side...Rest well Auntie ❤️
