“ Oh, my Lord! I have prayed for Brenda ever since it was shared with me that she had cancer. I send my love to Vivian and Alexine and to all their family my sincere belated sympathy. I met Vivian in Athens and later I moved to Atlanta and there I met Brenda and Alexine. The sisters were a trio of beautiful. I now understand why I have not heard from Vivian...she as well as the family has to be devastated in the loss of a beautiful person called Brenda. Once again, to Vivian...I send a personal message of love in your loss and to Alexine...while we met only a couple of times...I am sure Brenda is a deep loss to you as well. Losing a sibling is a piece of your heart that will always be a void. To Brenda's family I send my sympathy....Gail Silva

“ I am so sorry to hear of Brenda's passing. She was a wonderful light that brought so much joy to those around her.

I met Brenda at PwC, where she was a colleague, friend and mentor. She taught me so much in how to gracefully interact with people, regardless of how they interacted with you. And then when she developed cancer, she taught me how to continue to live, no matter what life dealt you. Brenda's grace, kindness, and ability to articulate through her writing brought so much joy and peace to those around her. Brenda was truly a light that will never go out - as her spirit lives on around us.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you mourn her passing and celebrate the amazing life she had. Julie Huske

“ I am rattled by Brenda's death. She was so special, vibrant, thoughtful, gentle, kind. We met in Milan MANY years ago and maintained a friendship with notes, calls and visits. I was so sad to watch her health fail. I shall miss the sound of her voice and her laugh. She was very dear to me. Kelly Kelly

“ Brenda was one of the kindest and fascinating person I have ever known. She gave me so much confidence in ways no one has ever given me. I miss her deeply and I know her spirit is with God in the infinite universe.
