“ Cassius was the epitome of what it means to be a man, husband, father, and friend. He will be missed; but, the example he set will live on through our actions and deeds. To Jill and Jeanine, we are here for you.

Love,

“ Jeanine is a chosen sister to me. We were roommates in college so I was only in Mr. Trotter’s presence a few times. We spoke on the phone and his smile shone through each conversation. He drove Jeanine to little Sidney, Ohio so that he could attend my wedding while she stood up with me as my maid of honor. He then drove her to visit me several years later after I had major back surgery. Those actions speak volumes as to the man Mr. Trotter was here in this realm. I could “see” his love for his daughter without being in his presence. His light is one that will shine forever by being an example of all that is good in this world. Mr. Trotter, you will be missed here, but all who love you know that you are living large in God’ glorious Kingdom! Your memory is a blessing to all who know you.

All my love,
Audra
