“ Catherine Dudley was an unsung hero. She was also a deep thinker that aligned issues in perspective that were truly thought provoking. She was smart, witty and had such a sense of humor. Cathy was also an outspoken advocate for the unjust. She spoke out against unfair labor practices in the work place. She even went to Springfield, Illinois for her son's right to wear braids to school. Now boys wearing braids to school is commonplace. Cathy contributed to fond memories for everyone. I remember the delicious and beautifully presented seafood salad she prepared for the 71st & Oglesby Block Club Party. And the snowballs she provided will be a memory to all. Cathy was a good neighbor and a friend. Her departure is such a loss. But we will have to find solace in knowing that Catherine Dudley is in God's loving care.
