“ Befriended him when he was discharged from the military. His Mom and Dad had a home built on 45th and Wells, Chicago. He stayed with them for awhile. I have nothing but respect and love for him. He was very meticulous, and organized. He had an infectious laugh! On behalf of the people he knew in the "Old" neighborhood, Charles, you will be missed a lot. Although I didn't see him much in later years, I often thought of him, fondly. -MICHAEL OWENS, friend and neighbor.

“ Charles was a beloved Doorman at the One East Schiller Condominium for over 20 years. He was family to his residents. It was apparent in how he worked every day that he loved God, Family and Country. We are all deeply saddened at his passing. The One East Schiller Community wishes his family sincere condolences during this difficult time.
