My heart goes out to you and the family. I can only imagine what it feels like to lose your mother. May she rest in peace and may you all find comfort in knowing that she has left bits and pieces of her spirit to shine through each one of you. With deepest condolences and much love to you and yours.

From the Cassell Family.

“ My deepest condolences to the Smith family. I will always remember Daisy's passion for education and her jovial personality. She always had me laughing! She was my other Mom on the block and she was a force of a woman!

“ Our condolence to the Smith family during this time of bereavement. May you be comforted knowing that the Lord is ever near you and is touched by your grief; he never gives us more than we can bear. Rejoice in this thought that those who sleep in the Lord shall be awakened at his second coming, and those of us who remain in the Lord shall be caught up together with them in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. May you be drawn ever closer to the Lord through this part of the journey. Remain faithful to the Lord. Our prayers are with the family.

*Respectfully yours,
Sophia & Will*

1 Corinthians 13:4–8a

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.
