“ I am so happy that I had the opportunity to know Debbie Hamlet. She was my Biology student at South Shore High School. I later got to know her as the loving wife of our choir member. She was always supportive of all of her husband's endeavors at our Church. We will miss her smiling face at our concerts and her pleasant voice when we called him. My dearest darling Cousister. We used that term to describe the fact that we were not just cousins, but we were sisters. ❤️🤔

Life is going to be very hard without you, Debra. 🙏 I don't know the world without you in it, and I will miss you very much.

Our/my first apartment together with little BaBa. The Times, your and your brother and sisters and me and my brothers and sister went to Michigan as kids together with our fathers, who were just like brothers instead of cousins. Going to see Al Jarreau at Ratsos before he even became famous. 🤔❤️ And of course attending Northwestern

University, and discovering that you were going there at that time! 😊

Talking frequently on the phone about food and what we are preparing for our husbands and how delicious it was going to be. Talking every year around our birthdays since they were only 10 days apart saying Scorpio is in the house, and enjoying the whole month of November, calling it Our month. And of course, our vacation last year in Myrtle Beach! We had a wonderful time. I will keep you in my ❤️, and i look forward to seeing you on the other side, Debra. I know you will be there, and I can't wait to meet up with you again. All my love forever and ever, your cousister, Yvonne.
