“ I met Delouse through my Sister-In- Law George, My brother Aubrey ask me did I want to stay the night at his house for the weekend so I said yes, I was introduce to the most kind,funny and quite person.one day I ask her why she wore dresses all the time? Delouse said because we are save and go to church. she ask me did I go to church and I told her no I use to go to church but not anymore. she did invite me a couple of times but I may have went once. we had so much fun as young girls and I couldn't wait until Fridays to take my niece Tasha home because I had met a new friend and her cousins was fun to be around. I join the Army and lose touch for awhile but when she got marry My brother told me that Delouse wouldn't mind if my husband and I attended because I was home on leave at the time we had a wonderful time. Delouse we might have not talked every day or may years but I have always cherish our friendship in my heart. May the God peace be with the family, friends through the sorrow we all will experience day to day. Weeping may endure for the night but joy comes in the morning. Trust In the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths. Proverbs 3:5-6

“ The last comment said (Hayes) made me laugh and cry. You all probably have been/ will be doing a lot of that in the days and weeks to come remembering and celebrating her life. She always asked about my family irregardless of what was occurring with her or her own. Ultimately she always made me feel like part of the family also because when Isabel got the wrath Mama Fox wasn't waiting for her friends to leave. My condolences go out to the whole family in your time of bereavement. She is greatly missed. Rest on Mama Fox. Xoxoxo

You guys picked my favorite picture of her from the mantle. Love you White girl, stay strong and cry too, but not for too long.
