“ Strong Mother of five ...my mentor who taught me never to depend on anyone... go for what you want and achieve your goals...love to dance, have fun and dress. The military may have distant us but love and respect kept us connected. You will always have a special place in my heart. LOVE YOU MOM! Special thanks to Deborah for making sure Mom was always taken care of. Love you Deb!

“ To Mother from Deborah

Mother, the Matriarch of our family, you quietly passed away in the night and I didn't get to say goodbye. I have watched you struggle, your struggle is now over. Although I am feeling profound grief, I am consoled only in knowing that you have finally found "Peace". You are now free. No more pain...No more suffering.

I love you.
