“ The friends of ms.Grace and The Bishop, gained at the Hammond CC sends their heart felt condolences. It is the belief of Verdell that connection between Muriel and Darlene was a “GOD” sent, because after a year or so not knowing the Bishops whereabouts or his condition, just before the ultimate transition, Franchot and I were granted time to briefly chat. Strong was his voice, and I imagined the look on his face as we exchanged conversation. There were no signs in his voice that he was annoyed by any medical condition. He just sounded like the Godly man he was. .It was a happy day for me because it eliminated my need to further wonder. And just as quickly as we were brought together, in the “Blinking of an eye” It all changed. RIP Bishop.
