“ When Eze smiles everybody smiles. As a childhood cousin and friend, we (Ugo, Emeka, Nnanna, Chima) rode bikes together and anytime he falls down, he gets up, smiles, and continues like nothing happened. We all smiled. This personal determination is also reflected in his adulthood, where he pursued life with dexterity, compassion, consideration and respect.. He will be missed, but there is nothing to worry, because Eze is still smiling now in the presence of the Almighty God.

“ Mr, Godwin Akomas was a very dear, and loving friend of mine. We worked together for years, and developed a professional, as well as a loving relationship over the years. I had the opportunity of also getting to know his wife Victory Akomas who proceded him in death, and their lovely daughter. My friend, I will always remember you placing a soda on my desk daily, and checking on me to see if I was alright. We all have our flaws, but a respectful gentleman, you were. I will miss you my friend, and I look forward to seeing you in Paradise. Love you more!
