“ My Uncle Chili loved me like a daughter. Without ever complaining, he chauffeured me and my friends wherever we wanted to go ... came to all my school events ... walked me down the aisle. He taught by example not by words. Although he never asked for much, he was grateful for any gift he received -- no matter how small, for every kind act, for his family and friends, and always for his wife. I am so blessed to have had him in my life and I will carry him in my heart forever.
