“ It was my privilege to work with Joyce for a few years at Stroger Hospital. She made difficult days easier with her beautiful attitude and her contagious laugh. We became friends and during breaks shared thoughts about politics, our families, and life. I am truly grateful that our paths crossed and that I got to know such a wonderful person. My condolences to her family. God bless Joyce and may she rest in peace.

“ Be glad and rejoice, because your reward is great in Heaven. My friend, Joyce Chisom, did just that. Joyce is receiving her reward now. God has called another beautiful angel home. Joyce was the sweetest most sincere person. If she didn't like you, you would know it. She had the most beautiful smile, I will definitely miss that. Thanks for being a dear true friend. I will miss you dearly. Rest in Paradise. You will no longer suffer now. God knows best. My prayers go out to the Chisom family. May God Bless All of You. She is safe in God's arms.
