“ Kenny Philpot was a high school teammate and great friend. Don't call him a jock, he was a true student athlete, giving his all on the sports field of battle and in the class room. I'll always remember the Intelligent athlete with the great sense of humor and infectious laugh. Although he may be gone, it's the memories of games played together and simply hanging out that brings a smile to my face. Gone but never forgotten. RIP my Blue Devil brother!!!
