“ I am going to miss my mother very very very much. She believed in God and always would pray she was a good Christian woman. I love her very much but I know she's in no more pain. She's in good hands with the Lord, and she's together with my father her husband. God bless me with her for 57 years of course I was not ready for her to go, but God was ready for her to come home. And I know that she's okay.
