“ My condolences go out to Marty's family. My Heart & Prayers are with Marty's family and all that were good friends with him. Marty and I met in 1994. We had a mutual friend, Derrick Ashford and we all used to work together. We became good friends. We hung out and used to go to the movies a lot! Derrick, Danny & Marty! The Crew! We were brothers. We were there for each other. We laughed a lot and told lot of stories about growing up in Chicago. He had plenty of stories about growing up in Altgeld Gardens. Marty was hardworking. The one thing that stood out about Marty was his love for his Mother, Quteta. He loved her so much. He spoke of how much of a blessing she was too him. I know he is happy to be back in her arms again. Love you my Brother and I will miss you! God Bless, Danny Bell.

“ Worked with Marty at Best Buy, he was very excited about working there at the store

Could always depend on him to help get the store ready for the next day. Recently we reconnected and talked about getting together again and talking. I never got that chance and I'm truly sorry. My friend RIP

You will be missed.
