“ It's hard to think of Reggie McLain and not smile. The laughter and banter seemed endless way back when on 78th Street. May his light shine for all eternity and memories always bring you joy.

“ Reggie what can I say that hasn't already been said. You were a true gentleman and a scholar. I already miss not being able to talk with you any longer, your humor (especially when you and your brothers would lovingly “crack” on one another), your big smile, and hearty laugh. To one of the strongest people I know, you are missed and will always be loved.

“ Uncle Reggie, hands down you gave me the absolute best nickname in the world. Sneaker, Geeker, Peeker. Describes me perfectly. I'll miss your laugh and the way you would tell a story. You would be laughing so hard you could barely get it out. Thank you for some awesome memories. I love you. - Lela
