Butchie, time has gone by but there is still not a day I don't think of you. I remember our holidays, the laughs & jokes & games. Most of all just being a family...all together. Some things have changed, but for your sake I WON'T GIVE UP! I love & miss you!!!

“ My BUTCHIE, I never thought you would leave me. I thought my big brother would last forever, but God saw that you were tired & needed rest, so I had to accept that. But forever I will miss our Sunday visit. With plenty of laughs & jokes. It' always made me feel so much better & it seemed to do wonders for you as well. I sometimes still find myself thinking "it's Sunday, let me call my Butchie." Then I realize that you are gone from me. I know that you are in a much better place now...no more sickness, no more pain. Your heart will forever be in mine. I'll still call you on Sunday, in my mind of course, just listen for me. Rest my Butchie, rest.

*Your "li Sis,
NAE-NAE*

“ My FIL and I would always go back and forth about who was the funniest person that I knew. He wins hands down (but I always said it was me). The time that I was able to spend with him in the past two years was always filled with love, laughs, great conversation and happiness. He adored Baby Charod and they had a great "talk" the weekend before Halloween. His legacy lives on and I love and miss him beyond what can be expressed in such a small space. Love you Jobu!!!
