“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. Losing someone we love to death is one of the most difficult situations we must ever face. I have personally found comfort in the Bible at Isaiah 25:8 where God promises that he will soon "swallow up death forever and wipe away the tears from all faces." I have found comfort in knowing God has something wonderful promised for all in the future, including those who have already died. Again, I express my sympathies and hope this message brings you comfort in this difficult time.

Is this the Robert Wiggins that stayed on Maryland off of 79th?
