“ On behalf of Bro. Rod & Sis. Kia Crockrom & Family, the Pastors and members of the Strangers Rest MB Church of Bellevue, NE expresses its most sincerest condolences to the Family of Sabina Grisham. Dear Grisham Family, realize that death is that aspect of life which transitions us from life mortal to life immortality. Therefore, let's shout the victor's cry with Sis. Sabrina, "O death where is your sting? O grave where is your victory?" (1 Cor.15:50-57). As you Celebrate the Life of your loved one, allow some of your tears of sorrow be translated into tears of joy! Remember, earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. God has given us His Son Jesus that we may have everlasting life. May the Words of Comfort encourage your family that you all will meet Sabina again, and that we shall always be with the Lord. (1 Thess.4:13-18)

Blessings Abundantly,

//SIGNED//

“ Ma-in-law you will truly be missed and one thing for sure we share and have in common is our love for Terrence...just know, he is in good hands. Enjoy ur new life beyond the clouds where there is happiness and no more suffering...

Those we love remain with us...for love itself lives on...

“ Mrs. Grisham and I were neighbors for many years. She was a hard-working, intelligent, proud woman. The apple of her eye was her son, Terrence Paul. We grew up together, cared for our neighbors . We were older than Terry, but she trusted us to take care of him over the summer. She is a fine example of an industrious, loving mother. She lived and breathed for Terry. He should be proud. Terrence, you and your family are held in God's hands. I love you and when you need me, please call. Bless you. Love never dies.
