“ I was a care giver of Val and as I got to know her I began to Love her(which wasn't hard)... one time I was doing her hair and I remembered that she was talking to me one day about some music so I turned my phone on and we were just going thru the music to find exactly which song she haven't heard in a while and that was her jam(we were scrolling for a min. Lol but we got it! And I felt she enjoyed that moment😊at times she would be in her good good moods and just smack me with a big ol kiss on my cheek😘❤️... I remeber when she used to get all dolled up and I would say “ wait a min. Val we gotta put on this lip gloss to finish the look” Then I would say” okaaayyy!.. there go valeries right there” btw I always called her Val so it was Valerie that day lol and while I said that she would poke her lips out and start moving them shoulders and arms dancing (she still had it too!) and other times we would joke around and laugh oh and believe she talked her stuff too lol... but let's not forget about her lil shadow b.j we had fun talking about his little raggedy tail too!❤️I'm gonna miss you Valerie yevett Arnold “ val “I truly Loved you and cared for as well as your family rest up! You Deserve it

“ My heart is heavy at the passing of my friend yet joyful eith thoughts of her beautiful smile and humble spirit. I remember not a time that she she complained or a time she was not smiling. Thou I'm sure she had her moments, she was model one could follow going through life's adversities.

My prayers of peace in days to come for Mother Hudson, Cinnamon and the entire Hudson family. May you be reminded, that Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Rest now my friend, see you in the morning.
