“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Ms. Birdsong. She was always so positive and willing to give advice and support, every time I saw her she gave me insight on how it was when she was a young woman to work in leadership in our Zion and that I can do the same things or better and not to give up on the church.

I will miss her dearly.

“ Remember Mother Birdsong from early years. I remember when I use to put her earrings in for her on Sunday mornings. When she got up in years and was still traveling I use to say if Mother Birdsong can up and attend the many different conferences Annual and General there was no excuse for anyone else not to attend...she had such a gentle spirit...and a smole that would melt the coldest heart....R.I.H. Mother Birdsong...you will truly be missed by many

“ What a gift of life, of lady hood, of Christian services, and true dynamic leadership Dr. Birdsong so unselfishly and willingly gave during her life time .Her signature magnetic and warm smile got my attention the first time I saw her three decades ago. I learned upon my first meeting that this is someone I can learn much from just by observing, listening, and sharing conversations with Dr. Zelda Birdsong, and I did. Dr. Birdsong 's caring gently giant progressive steps have laid a firm and structured path for those who were willing to follow and remain steadfast in the work of the Lord and human concerns. You will be greatly missed. I recall my sister, niece , and I so fortunate to see her at her lovely best at the 2009 General Board Meeting in Memphis , TN. - Marvelle W. Willoughby, Winston - Salem, NC - Carolina Region of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Birdsong was one of my mentors in the Missionary Society. When she notice certain expressions on my face, she would take my hand in her and say "it's going to be alright baby" May our God Bless and Rest Your Soul. I will always remember you with Love.

Mrs Birdsong was a supporter of our family. She encouraged us to do all we could to 'serve' God and our CME church. She shall be remembered for all her kind words. We pray for her family and the St Paul CME Church.
